

Dear Friends and Neighbors of PS 133,

PS 133's Fifth Annual Spring Auction and Social is almost here and The PTA of PS 133 needs your help! This event is our biggest fundraiser of the year and the money raised at the auction goes directly to support vital school programs including art, theater, lunch monitors, recess coaches, classroom libraries and more.

Our school is a wonderful Pre-K through grade 5 public school of nearly 750 students located on 4th Avenue at the crossroads of Park Slope, Gowanus and Boerum Hill. Our student population is diverse both in culture and socioeconomic background.

The programs the auction helps to support are critical in making our school exceptional. We hope you will consider giving to our auction so we can continue to provide this essential programming.

In addition to your donation providing much needed support to the students at PS 133, there is the added benefit of the exposure that your business will have to the over 200 expected auction attendees as well as our entire school community through our digital auction catalog and email campaigns. Another plus is that the PTA of PS133K is a 501(c)(3) non profit organization, so depending upon your particular situation, your donation may be tax deductible.

This year's auction will be on May 6, 2017, and we are currently accepting donations of both goods and services. You may also choose to support the auction through our sponsorship opportunities.
